1. Which of the following age groups are most likely to have the highest frequency of substance abuse?
   A. 25 to 31 years of age
   B. 13 to 18 years of age
   C. 18 to 24 years of age
   D. 32 to 41 years of age

2. Managed Care is:
   A. A system arranged with selected providers to give a comprehensive range of healthcare services
   B. A socialist approach to medical treatment not advocated by those concerned with quality assurance
   C. A system of healthcare delivery that integrates the financing and delivery of healthcare services
   D. A formal program of healthcare that is qualitatively superb and financially rewarding

3. If a patient does not purchase Medicare Part B when they become eligible for Medicare Part A, can they get Part B at a later date?
   A. Not for the first 5 years of coverage
   B. They will never be able to have Part B coverage
   C. Yes, but they will pay a higher premium for Part B than they would have initially
   D. Yes, but their Part A premium will increase

4. Which of the following patients would be an appropriate hospice referral?
   A. A patient with newly diagnosed chronic renal failure
   B. A 70-year-old with failure to thrive, despite nutritional interventions
   C. A 50-year-old who was diagnosed with CA of the Prostate, is post-op and starting chemo
   D. A patient with osteomyelitis and needs long term antibiotic therapy

5. The Right to Know form and explanation must be given to all Medicare patients upon admission and:
   A. Within one hour of discharge
   B. Does not have to be given again during their in-patient stay
   C. 24 to 48 hours in advance of discharge
   D. After discharge

6. If the patient does not have an Advanced Directive, how are decisions made when they can no longer make them?
   A. Physicians
   B. Family members - spouse, adult child, parents
   C. Hospital

7. If an employee has insurance coverage and has a catastrophic illness depleting all of their benefit time, they do not need to be offered Cobra benefits.
   A. True
   B. False

8. A physical disability:
   A. Does not include disabilities that result from smoking
   B. Results from smoking
   C. Includes sexual orientation
   D. Includes any physiological disorder
9. State Medicaid plans:
   A. Have remained as managed care plans
   B. Have been restructured into managed care plans
   C. Have generally been restructured into indemnity plans
   D. Have remained as indemnity plans

10. Successful aging in the geriatric population includes:
    A. Achieving retirement goals
    B. Adjusting to decreased physical strength
    C. Improving memory
    D. Separation from children

11. DRG's are:
    A. Doctors recognition of gate-keepers
    B. Diagnosis related groups
    C. Drug rehab groups
    D. Doctor's reorganization groups

12. It is important for family members to be educated in their role in assisting with pain management.
    A. True
    B. False

13. The best way for a Case Manager to obtain the most accurate data from a patient is to:
    A. Use open-ended questions
    B. Retrieve information from the client's caregiver and ask if they concur with the findings
    C. Review the client's chart
    D. Use short, close-ended questions

14. The average time frame to receive Medicare benefits after being diagnosed with Chronic Renal Failure and applying for Medicare is:
    A. One year
    B. Immediately
    C. 2 years
    D. 18 months

15. Medicare Lifetime reserve days recycle:
    A. After the patient is out of the acute care hospital for 60 days
    B. After the patient is out of the hospital for 30 days
    C. 60 days after the spell of illness care in acute care and skilled facilities has been completed
    D. Never

16. Medicaid is funded by:
    A. CMS
    B. Both the federal and state governments
    C. The federal government
    D. State government
17. Sedentary is:
   A. An exertional level
   B. A vocationally qualified level
   C. An education level
   D. A skill level

18. Disability programs:
   A. Can last up to 2 years
   B. Have a maximum lifetime payment
   C. May have limits of several years or last until retirement age
   D. Last until retirement age

19. ICD-9-CM stands for:
   A. International Classification of Diseases, Ninth Revision, Clinical Modification
   B. International Classified Dictionary of Clinical Moods
   C. Internal Causative Dictionary with Clinically Modified Explanations
   D. International Committee of Doctors, Ninth Revision, Clinical Module

20. Breathing capacity of the lungs is measured through:
   A. Spirometry
   B. Fluorescent antinuclear antibody test
   C. Electromyography
   D. Clinical Observation

21. Which of the following is not a function of Case Management?
   A. Facilitating communication and coordinating the delivery of required services
   B. Directing the finances of a patient
   C. Developing plans of care for the client based upon data gathered from assessment
   D. Collecting data pertaining to the current case from all individuals

22. Which of the following is NOT true of confidentiality?
   A. The agency invokes confidentiality
   B. The client invokes privilege
   C. The social worker must testify if court ordered
   D. The social worker never needs to testify due to confidentiality

23. All care plans for older adult patients include:
   A. A bowel and bladder program
   B. A fall prevention program
   C. Discharge planning
   D. Reminiscence therapy

24. The most appropriate environment for a person with chronic dementia is one that:
   A. Changes often to decrease boredom
   B. Contains familiar objects
   C. Is limited in color and sound
   D. Is stimulating in order to challenge thought
25. Which is an accurate statement about Medicare?

A. Medicare is a health insurance program with carefully described benefits that may restrict the length of hospital stays
B. Medicare patients can expect to receive routine household and attendant care under Part A of their Medicare insurance
C. Medicare pays for the majority of nursing home care for persons who are 65 years of age or older
D. Persons covered by Medicare must pay once-in-a-lifetime deductibles for both the physician and hospital portions of the program